Working with Neurodiversity

Clients with a Range of Neurological Differences

Friday 21st February 2025

This face-to-face, interactive training has been developed for counsellors, therapists and professionals who want to gain a deeper understanding of the complexities of working with clients (adults & young people) who present with neurodiversity, diagnosed or un-diagnosed conditions.

The training is ideal for professionals who work from the heart and wish to increase their knowledge, understanding and make a difference when working therapeutically with the complexities that often present in the therapy room or other therapeutic settings.

We will aim to cover and / or discuss the following:

- ❖ A clear understanding of neurodivergence
- ❖ Different diagnoses / complex & comorbid conditions
- ❖ Assessing for undiagnosed conditions
- ❖ Advantage & disadvantage of a diagnosis
- ❖ Triangulated view
- ❖ Working therapeutically & connecting on a deeper level
- ❖ The effect on mental health
- ❖ Questions & answers

Training facilitators: Martin Chester & David Archard are both qualified and experienced counsellors and members of BACP. They aim to provide a positive supportive learning environment whilst honouring the participants individual learning styles.
